

James Dore Jr.

Mr. Dore is a third generation Seattle lawyer. An aggressive litigator with more than 25 years of legal experience, he has extensive experience in the areas of personal injury. He founded Dore Law Group for the purpose of representing clients injured, and the families who have lost a loved one, in car accidents, construction accidents, semi-truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, bicycle accidents, maritime accidents, medical malpractice and defective products due to the negligence and reckless acts of others.

After graduating from Seattle University in 1988 and obtaining his Juris Doctorate degree from Gonzaga Law School in 1991, Mr. Dore clerked for King County Superior Court Judges Larry Jordan and Frank Sullivan from 1992 to 1994. During that time he worked on some of the biggest criminal trials of the 1990s.

Prior to starting Dore Law Group he was a partner with his father, Judge James Dore Sr. (deceased), in the law firm Dore & Dore, and with Ann Deutscher in the law firm Dore Deutscher Law Group, PLLC.

Admitted to the Washington State Bar Association in 1992, Mr. Dore is an EAGLE member of the Washington State Association for Justice (formerly the Washington State Trial Lawyers Association), and the Association of Trial Lawyers of America.
