As personal injury lawyers in Washington, we represent those injured in car accidents, construction accidents, semi-truck accidents, maritime accidents, and other accidents caused by the negligence and reckless acts of others. We also represent those injured as the result of medical malpractice, including failure to diagnose and surgical mishap cases. When wrongful death occurs, we represent the loved one's survivors. We take great pride in serving the military and their families in cases of military malpractice.

We take every case personally. We know what is at stake for you and your family. We take the time to get to know you and to position your case for success.

We are experienced, knowledgeable, ethical and compassionate. We are loyal to our clients and their causes. We are relentless in our pursuit of justice on our clients' behalf. We push beyond easy settlements and fight for every penny for our clients. We have a proven track record of success. Our fearlessness and tenacity – on your behalf – help us at trial and in settlement negotiations.
